RHYTHM & RHYME WITH MOTHER GOOSE

Rhythm and rhyme are a big part of learning how to read. This series focuses on some favorite Mother Goose rhymes to help kids lay the base for reading readiness.

While there are a limited number of pages in this book, many of the activities can be replicated with other nursery rhymes and poems.

KEY ACTIVITIES TO REPLICATE

-  FIND THE ALLITERATION  FIND A RHYMING WORD
-  SWAP THE LETTERS FOR A NEW LETTER SOUND
- * SWAP THE WORDS FOR A NEW RHYME
-  SPY SUPER SOUNDING WORDS
- * How MANY WORDS DO YOU USE

Some of the pages in the book are a little more open-ended and can be reused. We recommend laminating them and using a dry erase marker.

LAMINATE AND REUSE * Alliteration is All Around, page 2

* Pesky Peter Piper, page 2
* Super Yummy Sound Stev

SUPER SOUNDING WORDS

Games and riddles are always fun! Pick an object around you and think about what sound it begins with. Tell your partner, and they will try to guess what object you've picked. After they figure it out, it's your turn to try. Try using several different letter sounds.

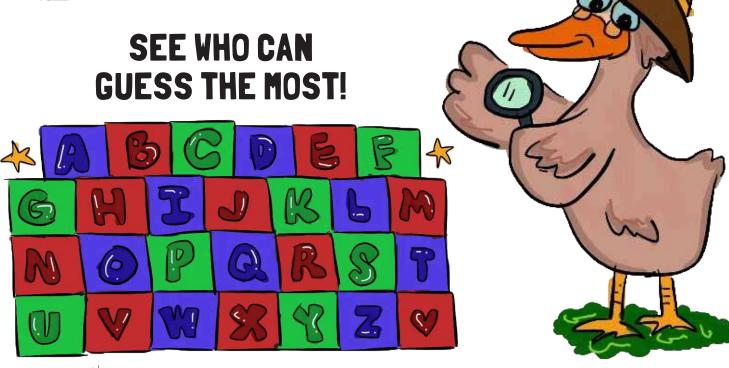

EXAMPLE:

"I SPY WITH MY LITTLE EYES SOMETHING THAT BEGINS WITH THE ______ SOUND."

"IS IT A TABLE?"

Choose a letter and write it on the line. Now it's time to make yummy sound stew. Pick three items that start with the same sound as your letter. Draw pictures of those items in the pot to create a super sound stew!

SPECIAL INGREDIENT SOUND

Mother Goose loves words and the way they sound. Look at the pictures. Say their names and circle the ones that begin like "mother."

Many words have similar sounds. Look at the pictures. Say their names and circle the ones that begin like "goose."

DIRECTIONS:

Listen carefully to the poem read aloud by your grown-up. What sound do you hear at the beginning of most of the words? Write the letter that makes the sound. Use your yellow crayon to color all the words that start with that sound.

I HEAR THE SOUND THE MOST.

BETTY BOTTER BOUGHT SOME BUTTER

Betty Botter bought some butter. "But," she said, "the butter's bitter; if I put it in my batter it will make my batter bitter, but a bit of better butter will make my batter better." So she bought a bit of butter better than her bitter butter, and she put it in her batter and the batter was not bitter. So 'twas better Betty Botter bought a bit of better butter.

Listen carefully to the poem as its read aloud. What sound do you hear at the beginning of most of the words? Use your yellow crayon to color words that start with that sound.

Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers. A peck of pickled peppers Peter piper picked. If Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers, Where's the peck of pickled peppers Peter Piper picked?

NOW LET'S TRY A DIFFERENT SOUND!

Parents: As a silly phonics exercise replace all of the P's with another consonant, like T, and go through the poem with your child again reading the new nonsense tongue twister to them. Encourage them to repeat the new sounds with you.

MY NEW SOUND IS THE _____ SOUND.

____eter ___iper ___icked a ___eck of ___ickled __eppers.

A __eck of __ickled __eppers __eter __iper __icked.

If _____iper ___icked a ___eck of ___ickled __eppers,

Where s'the __eck of __ickled __eppers

___eter ___iper ___icked?

MY NEXT NEW SOUND IS THE SOUND.

___eter __iper __icked a __eck of __ickled __eppers.

A __eck of __ickled __eppers __eter __iper __icked.

If _____iper ____icked a ___eck of ___ickled __eppers,

Where's the __eck of __ickled __eppers

___eter __iper __icked?

HOW MANY WORDS DO YOU USE?

Have an older helper read the sentences with you. As you read, count the words in each sentence. Write the number of words in the space provided.

the sentence.

LITTLE BO-PEEP HAS LOST HER SHEEP, AND CAN'T TELL WHERE TO FIND THEM.

There are words in the sentence.

SILLY HUMPTY DUMPTY

Rhyming words have endings that sound the same, like "man" and "pan." Read the poem and color the words that rhyme. Think about two words that rhyme with "fall." Write them on the blank lines and read your new silly poem.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall, Humpty Dumpty had a great fall. All the King's horses, and all the King's men Couldn't put Humpty together again!

Humpty Dumpty sat on a _____, Humpty Dumpty had a great _____. All the King's horses, and all the King's men Couldn't put Humpty together again!

PORRIDGE, PLEASE!

Read the poem. Color the rhyming words yellow. Then draw a picture of each word using the boxes on the right. Make sure to keep each rhyming pair together as you draw them.

Peas porridge hot, Peas porridge cold, Peas porridge in the pot Nine days old.

Some like it hot, Some like it cold, Some like it in the pot Nine days old.

WHAT IS GEORGIE PORGIE UP TO?

Read the poem. Color the rhyming words yellow. Look at the flashcards. Color them and cut them out carefully. Ask an adult to help you. Finally, match the cards with their rhyming partner (yellow words).

Georgie Porgie, puddin' and pie.

Kissed the girls and made them cry.

When the boys came out to play,

Georgie Porgie ran away.

Read each sentence. Find a word that rhymes with the bold word and write it on the line. Use the picture clue on top of the sentence.

ALLITERATION IS ALL AROUND

Alliteration can make stories interesting! Find a book that uses alliteration. (A librarian can help!) Read the book with a grown-up helper. Then use page 2 to list out the alliterations you find!

First, let's practice using this sample activity. The title of the book is written at the top. Which letter do you hear at the beginning of many words in the title? Write it in the blanks. Finally, list out the words you see that begin with that letter.

SAMPLE ACTIVITY

TITLE: Anteater Anthony Ate All The Ants

THE LETTER I HEARD AT THE BEGINNING OF MANY WORDS IN THIS TITLE IS _____.

WORDS FROM THIS TITLE THAT START WITH ____:

1. Anteater 4.

BABY BUMBLE BEE

I'm bringing home a baby bumble bee. (Pretend to cup a bee inside your hands, swinging it) Won't my mommy be so proud of me! I'm bringing home a baby bumble bee OUCH! He stung me! I'm squishing up the baby bumble bee. (Press and rub your hands together) Won't my mommy be so proud of me! I'm squishing up the baby bumble bee. Ooooo! He's all over me! I'm wiping off the baby bumble bee. (Wipe your hands off on the sides of your legs) Won't my mommy be so proud of me! I'm wiping off the baby bumble bee LOOK! He's all gone!
